

CELEBRATE AN AFRICAN CHRISTMAS

Annual Christmas Concert for Africa!
ST. MARGARET'S CHURCH, JERICHO,
OXFORD. SAT 13TH DEC 08, 7:30PM

A collaboration between Oxford-based charity
SOS Sahel UK & fair-trade company Pula

Join us for an intimate acoustic session of West African music performed on traditional instruments. Take the opportunity to buy unusual Christmas gifts at our market stalls selling fair-trade African arts & crafts, jewellery and more!

Juldeh Camara - Enchanting desert blues sounds

One of the leading riti (fiddle) players of his generation. Juldeh is a prominent West African Fula musician with a fine voice and inspirational compositional skills.

WINNER OF A BBC RADIO 3 WORLD MUSIC AWARD 2008 FOR HIS ALBUM SOUL SCIENCE.

Kadialy Kouyate – Rippling and hypnotic melodies

Renowned Senegalese kora player (21 string African harp). Kadialy's masterful playing and insistent vocals draw strongly on the Kouyate family and its griot praise-singing ancestry.

"HE DEMONSTRATED EXCEPTIONAL MUSICAL GIFTS – BOTH WITH KORA AND VOICE – AND WARMTH AND HUMANITY THAT CALLED TO THE VERY CORE OF ONE'S BEING"

Paul Chi reviewing Kadialy's Healthy Concert performance in 2003

PLUS Special Guest Speaker
