

You are warmly invited to the:

SOS Sahel UK

Annual Public Debate

The Future's Mobile: Challenges & Opportunities to Development in Africa's drylands

Tuesday 3rd February 2009, 18:30 – 20:30
Oxford Town Hall, St. Aldates, Oxford OX1 1BX

Confirmed Speakers:

Professor Jeremy Swift, academic specialising in pastoralism
"Nomadic Education in Africa: one of the great unfinished tasks of development"

Dr Nick Brooks, Tyndall Centre for Climate Research, University of East Anglia
"Climate change predictions and their ramifications in the Sahel"

Chair: Ian Leggett, Director of People & Planet & SOS Sahel UK Trustee

We would be delighted if you would like to join us for this event. Drinks will be provided.

RSVP: (01865) 403305, email: mail@sahel.org.uk

Registered Charity No. 296311, Registered Company Limited by Guarantee No. 2100867.